Women's History Month Reflection

Sr. Thea Bowman Cause for Canonization

Sr. Thea Bowman, F.S.P.A.
December 29, 1937 – March 30, 1990

Sister Thea Bowman was a Roman Catholic religious sister, teacher, and scholar who made a major contribution to the ministry of the Catholic Church. Sr. Thea became an evangelist among her people, assisted in the production of an African American Catholic hymnal, and was a popular speaker on faith and spirituality in her final years. She helped found the National Black Sisters Conference to provide support for African-American women in Catholic religious institutes. Bowman has been designated a Servant of God.
